

Aluno (a): Recho Paulo Lima Sousa

Nº: 25

Women in Literature

Double

History

- Women had limited voice in most times
- Many wrote anonymously
- First female authors gained recognition

Challenge

- Faced sexism and prejudice
- Creativity restricted their ideas
- Lack of freedom and opportunities

Achievement

- Gained independence in writing
- Created powerful and creative works
- Increased representation and influence

Themes

- Identity and self-discovery
- Love and emotional expression
- Resistance and freedom
- Justice and equality

Important Writers

- Toni Arden - social criticism
- Virginia Woolf - feminism and mind
- Emily Dickson - inner feelings
- Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie - feminism today

Impact Today

- Inspires new generation of women
- Promotes equality in literature
- Gives voice and visibility
- Encourages empowerment